Welcome to Halls

Dear Students,

Welcome to PDM University! The Dean Students Welfare Office is committed to play a pivotal role in the overall development of students in curricular & co-curricular activities and to create a conducive and compassionate environment ensuring safety and security of the students in the campus. It gives us an opportunity to communicate and interact with students, so as to nurture their individual talents and give them an enabling environment to plan and execute various activities and thus make a major contribution towards their holistic development. I am sure that the students will devote their time towards scholastic development and gain lot of experiences during the stay at the University and become critical, confident and independent. I encourage each student to participate in academic programs whole heartedly and develop their skills and competence by participating in various activities of the University.

The Office of the Dean – Students' Welfare acts as a bridge between the students and the University management and aims at addressing any problems and issues of the students and providing a solution to it. This office also ensures to provide excellent and equitable facilities to the students, taking care of the needs of the students.

PDM University is a fusion of students from different cultural background which creates richness in opinion and makes us compassionate about others. I am sure, the students will enjoy the time spent here and it will be a great learning experience for each one of them. We will work, learn and grow together and take the University to the pinnacle by maintaining highest standards.

I assure you that the you will have an amazing experience at PDM University.

Introduction about Halls

What are the accommodation options available on campus and what facilities are available in halls?

The Halls

The PDMU Halls of Residences offer a range of accommodation options. The University offers on campus as well as off campus accommodation. Currently there are three Halls of Residences available on the campus, The Sungate Hall is for male students and The Moonlight Hall & Eventide Hall are for female students. For First Year students, for instance, the double or triple common dorm-type accommodation gives them the comfort of the company as they settle into their college and course. It also gives them opportunity to make friends and get acquainted with the campus and its facility. The Halls of Residence facility has been designed and constructed keeping in view the international standards and conducive ambiance for learning.

Sancity of Halls

The Halls of Residences being a part of the University premises deserve a sacred status. Use of bad and abusive language should be avoided within the Halls of Residence / University premises. Students are not permitted to keep-in-their possession and in their rooms items such as crackers, dangerous weapons, firearms, contraband items or instruments that can cause serious injury to others. Students should not indulge in any illegal and/or unethical activity the Hall premises. Smoking, consumption of alcoholic drinks and use of narcotic drugs in the Halls of Residence premises is strictly prohibited. Neither the students nor their visitors are allowed to bring or consume liquor, drugs, or any other intoxicants on the Halls of Residence premises. Severe action will be taken against those in possession of drugs or found under their influence.

Basic Amenities

Every room is furnished with a cot, a study table, a chair and a cupboard. All the rooms are fitted with the necessary electrical equipments. Every Hall has solar hot water facility, RO water, water coolers, telephone, TV and Common lounge. Gym and indoor games are available as common facility for the Halls of Residence students.

The Support Staff

The support staff provided at Halls of Residences is to facilitate your stay and make it as comfortable as possible. Please treat them with respect. If you have any problems with them, please direct your complaints to the Halls of Residence Administration, rather than handling them yourself.

Equal Rights for all

PDM University treats all its students equally. Your roommate is entitled to equal rights of occupancy and access to any material of common use. We expect you to have a courteous attitude towards your roommate and not indulge in any activity that is not in accordance with common code of social conduct.

Students as custodians

You will have to act as custodians of the property; therefore, its usage should be done with care. You will be liable to pay for any loss or damage caused to it. In case of loss by a group of students, the residents of the entire floor/building will be fined. This is done with a view to encourage reporting of undisciplined students by the student themselves.

Applying to the Halls

I want to stay at the campus. How do I apply and secure my place at the halls ?

Procedure for Admission

1. Application for admission to the Hall of Residence should be made in the prescribed form, which can be collected either from the Help Desk during admission or by downloading from the website.
2. A responsible person, parent / guardian who will comply with the formalities and procedures for admission must accompany the candidate.
3. No student will be allowed to stay in the Halls of Residence without formal admission.
4. The Halls of Residence administration may refuse admission to any member without assigning reasons.
5. Every student before admission to the Halls of Residence must give an undertaking in writing that he / she will abide by the rules of the Halls of Residence and that he / she will submit to the discipline imposed on him / her by the authorities. This shall be confirmed in writing by the parent / guardian also in the attached declaration from.
6. All charges/expenses prescribed in the application form or any other documents are subject to change without notice.
7. Halls of Residence check in application has to be submitted to the Chief Warden while checking in to the Halls of Residence. This form is available with the Hall office.

Room Allocation

The Allotment of rooms may not necessarily be of one's choice, however the student's choice will be taken into account while allotting the room. The rooms will be allotted by the hall administration. Subsequently, mutual shifting between the students may be permitted at the sole discretion of the hall administration. Once allotted, the rooms will generally not be changed unless it is for maintenance of discipline or other such necessity, on the discretion of the hall administration.

The hall administration intentionally places students of varying academic, cultural, social, national backgrounds together so that cross-cultural, academic, social and national learning is achieved. Students are expected to give full respect and equal rights to their roommates, irrespective of their varying backgrounds.

Allotment is generally done on a shared (double / triple occupancy basis i.e. two or three persons per room).

Students must occupy the rooms allotted to them and should not exchange rooms without the knowledge of the concerned Chief Warden.

Your halls contract and discipline

What are my roles and responsibilities as a student in the halls of residence ?

ID Cards- Identity card will be issued to all the inmates of the Halls of Residence. They should produce their identity cards on demand. In case of loss, duplicate card will be issued on payment of Rs.100.

Surprise checks- may be carried out on monthly basis by the Wardens and other Halls of Residence staff to ensure there is no unlawful activity like ragging, smoking, harassing roommates, or possession of weapons, etc. Hall administration is empowered to check the Hall rooms at any time. In case of female occupants, the inspection will be carried out in the presence of a female staff member.

Electrical Appliances- You are expected to use the electrical appliances and fixtures in an efficient manner. For example, if you are not in your room, lights and fans should be switched off. Similarly, the common room appliances / electrical fixtures should only be in operation when you are there.

Privacy- Students using computers are not permitted to use multimedia speakers. Violation of this will be viewed seriously. Only ear hags can be used in the rooms to respect the privacy of other roommates.

Personal belongings- Students are advised always to keep their belongings under lock & key and to lock their rooms whenever they go out. Students are expected to behave in a mature and responsible manner and look after their belongings. Students are advised not to keep expensive jewellery, heavy cash or any other valuables in their rooms. The Hall administration will not be responsible for any loss of personal belongings and such complaints shall not be entertained.

Parties and Functions- Students should not arrange any function, meeting, or religious gathering within the Halls of Residence without prior permission of the authorities. In case, the students need to organize a function (such as birthday parties etc) at the Halls, they are required to get prior permission from the Chief Warden or through the Dean Student's Welfare after giving a written request in this regard. If the administration allows residents to organize any function, the Hall representatives may be asked to provide a written undertaking of good conduct and observing accepted norms of behavior.

Sub-letting- Accommodation is available for the exclusive use of the person to whom it is let whilst they are a full time registered student of the University. You may not sub-let or allow anyone else to use your room. No resident is permitted to entertain any ex-student of this institution or other institutions. Please note random spot-checks occur throughout the year to check the ID of residents. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in disciplinary action being taken.

Privacy- Students using computers are not permitted to use multimedia speakers. Violation of this will be viewed seriously. Only ear hags can be used in the rooms to respect the privacy of other roommates.

Misconduct- Misconduct or infringements of rules & regulations and activities which are not in the interest of the University and harmful to the reputation will make a student liable for severe disciplinary action and even expulsion from the Halls of Residence & University. Room-mates will report anyone missing from their rooms after 10 pm and will be equally liable for disciplinary action in case of not reporting this or any other abnormal event in the room.

Maintainance- It is expected that residents will treat the Halls of Residence property with care and consideration.

Furnishings for individual rooms as well as common areas will be provided once at the beginning of the academic year. The subsequent maintenance will be the responsibility of the inmate students. Any damage to the individual room furnishings will be taken care of by the individuals concerned and that to the items of collective use by the residents as a group.

Fixing of posters, making use of walls / doors as a canvas for painting of various expressions, etc., are strictly prohibited. The cost of repair to pay for the damage caused to the walls / doors due to this sort of activity will be recovered from the occupants of the respective rooms.

Cooking- Cooking in the Halls of Residence rooms is not permitted except in areas with special cooking facility. Possession of cooking material, induction tops, stoves, heaters etc will invite heavy penalty and repeated offence may amount to expulsion from the Halls of Residences.

Smoking- Smoking inside Halls of Residences and common areas is not permitted. Violation will be considered a breach of discipline and will attract a fine of Rs 1,000 per violation.

No student is allowed to use any sort of narcotics. Any student found involved in use or possession of narcotics will be expelled from the Halls of Residence in addition to other disciplinary action.

Complaints- A Halls of Residence Committee has been formed at PDMU to look into various matters or problems, related to Halls of Residences. The composition of the committee will be intimated from time to time. For the convenience of the residents, a complaint handling system is in vogue. In case of any complaint regarding upkeep and maintenance, the complaint should be entered in complaint register which is in the custody of Hall Warden. All avenues are available to you for lodging complaints for unattended works. It would, however, be appropriate if immediate channels are tapped first. These are:

- (1) Hall Warden
- (2) Chief Warden
- (3) Dean Student's Welfare

Fine- When a student is fined for any violation of Hall rules and regulations, he/she has to clear his/her fine within one month from the date of fining. He/She will have to vacate the Halls of Residence immediately if this is not adhered to. Re-admission to the Halls of Residence will be subject to approval of the competent authority.

Support staff- Through the support staff at Halls of Residences, we provide you the following services: Day-to-day maintenance work; Cleaning of premises; Newspapers/Sports and recreation facilities and Common gas facility/ Refrigerator.

Musical Instruments- Residents are free to bring in their musical instruments however playing instruments/music at a loud volume, singing aloud, shouting and making noise of any kind causing disturbance to others is discouraged. It is expected that Hall residents will respect each other's privacy, rest hours and peace of mind by not making undue noise. Habitual offenders are subject to punishment by the disciplinary committee.

Vehicles- Two wheelers/Cars will be permitted in the Halls of Residence premises only on official permission.

Compatibility- If you are facing any difficulty adjusting with your roommate and unable to resolve the issue, the matter must be reported to the Halls of Residence administration immediately. Students are expected to act with maturity and not involve your parents or guardians, in trivial cases.

Mails- Outgoing mail will have to be sent by the individual. However, incoming mail will be received by the Halls of Residence Office and will be sent to the respective block if full information is available. Registered letters will be delivered to the recipient directly by the mail carrier only.

Furnishings- All the rooms are equipped with the basic furniture such as a cot, cupboard with lock, individual study tables, power points, curtains, fans and other necessary equipments.

Electrical fittings will be provided by the Halls of Residence at the beginning of the occupancy, subsequently if there is any failure, it should be brought to the notice of the authorities immediately for replacement. Residents are not supposed to take away common area fittings/furnishings to their individual rooms. Violators will be fined Rs 1,000 per violation. None of the furnishings / appliances provided in individual rooms or common areas can be removed and/or relocated. Even in case where a student has been allotted a single room, the furnishings must not be disturbed. The defaulters can attract a hefty penalty.

Others- Students are strictly prohibited from taking out any procession or indulging in unauthorized group activities. No one shall indulge in politics, violence, rioting or instigate communal feelings or have dealings with outside elements. Such activities may lead to expulsion of the student from the halls as well as the university.

Ragging- Ragging is a cognizable offence. Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited and the students are advised not to indulge in any form of the same; severe action will be taken against those who indulge in such activities as per Govt. orders and University rules.

Ragging entails heavy fines and/or suspension/expulsion from the Halls of Residence and/or University.

Any student, with the intention of causing ragging or with the knowledge that he/she is likely by such act to cause ragging, commits or abets ragging, and thereby teases or embarrasses or humiliates or assaults or uses criminal force or criminally intimidates or wrongfully restrains or wrongfully confines or causes grievous hurt or kidnaps or abducts or rapes or commits unnatural offence or causes death or abets suicide shall be punished as per the Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997.

If the individuals committing or abetting ragging are not identified, collective punishment could be resorted to act as a deterrent punishment and to ensure collective pressure on the potential raggers.

Visitors- Parents may visit the halls during the specified timings.

Male visitors to halls with female residents and female visitors to halls with male visitors (other than parents) are allowed on permission of the Chief Warden or DSW.

Use of Halls of Residences as a place of rest by the day-scholars is not permitted. Inmates from one Halls of Residence to another are not permitted without valid permission.

Overnight stay by visitors will only be allowed under genuine circumstances. Advance approval of the Hall Administration is necessary.

All the visitors are required to sign the Visitor's book before entering the Hall.

If it is established that an overnight stay by a visitor has taken place without the approval of the Halls of Residence administration, the host will be charged Rs 1,500 per night per person as a penalty. In addition, such cases will be referred to the Disciplinary Committee for necessary action.

Visitors will only be restricted to the lounge(s).

Health, Safety and Security at Halls

How can I have the best time possible in halls; conduct myself responsibly and in a safe manner with my fellow residents and the buildings in which I live?

Your personal safety

Though all of our halls are safe and secure, with 24 hour security and closed circuit television cameras (CCTV) it is advised that you take the following precautions:

- Always keep your room key in your possession at all times.
- Keep all unattended rooms locked & windows shut.
- Don't let any strangers onto the halls premises.
- Don't tamper with window restraints.
- Keep Guests restricted to the lounge area.

Electrical safety

All electrical supplies in your halls operate at 240 volts and if used incorrectly can give fatal electric shocks. Faulty or damaged electrical equipment can also cause fires.

The electrical equipment provided by the University is routinely checked to ensure it is safe. If you bring electrical equipment into the residences it must be in good condition and be fitted with a 3-pin plug with an appropriate fuse. Two or three-pin plugs with adaptors should not be used. The University reserves the right to remove, without warning, electrical appliances it deems to be unsafe.

General health and safety

Large items may not be brought into halls buildings; they must not be stored externally where they obstruct access to doors or stairs. You must not obstruct doors, corridors, stairs or communal areas. Use of inflammable and hazardous substances is strictly prohibited in the halls.

Medical Assistance

Cases of serious illness and diseases should be reported immediately to the concerned Chief Warden for necessary action. During hospital working hours, students can go to the hospital for treatment. After working hours, they can approach the Casualty department of the on campus PDM General Hospital. However, during night time, students are expected to contact the Hall warden if any medical help is required. A vehicle and driver are available on campus 24 hours to transport students to hospital and back if any emergency arises.

Staff Access

University staff will access the communal areas in your flat for cleaning, health and safety inspections and maintenance of these areas. We'll always let you know who we are and what we're doing, as well as carry identification. We may have to enter your room at times throughout the year for similar purposes. You should always know who is entering your flat, so do stop to find out who we are and what we're up to. If you have any concerns, ask to see identification and call your halls warden.

Hall Timings

Entry/Exit timings

For security reasons and to ensure that no unauthorized person enters the Hall premise, entry will strictly be restricted to the residents except for guests during specified hours and the university staff. The students must keep their identity cards with them at all times.

Residents will not be allowed to go out of or enter the Halls after 9:30 p.m. unless they have prior approval of the Chief Warden.

Cases of the residents who fail to abide by security personnel instructions in this regard will be referred to the disciplinary committee which may exercise its power to take any action or punishment in the form of fine, suspension or expulsion from the Halls against the guilty.

Visitor Timings

Visitors may visit the Halls of Residence from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. during working days and 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. during holidays.

Daily Attendance

Residents should adhere to the timings. For resident safety and to maintain the decorum of the Halls, the attendance will be taken daily at 9.30 pm. The timings may be changed on particular days of events and students should be in their Halls thereafter. Residents are expected to maintain absolute silence for study hours thereafter from 10 pm onwards. By opting to stay in the Halls of Residences, it is assumed that the residents and their parents acknowledge this requirement and there will be no representation on this ground. Also strict action will be taken against those not abiding to the same.

Special cases

If any resident plans to stay away from the Halls after 9.30 pm, he/she must inform the Chief Warden in writing. Verbal messages to the Warden will not suffice. Information sheets must contain the place where they have planned to go as well as the contact no. Permission from their parents in writing or by way of email is mandatory for staying outside the Halls beyond specified timings.

Food and Catering

What are the food options available? Will I get the menu of my choice ?

Centralised Mess

Once a student joins the Halls of Residence, he / she is deemed to be a member of the centralised mess facility until he / she vacates the Halls of Residence officially.

The Halls of Residence provides highly subsidized Vegetarian / Non-vegetarian and South Indian / North Indian food. The residents will be asked to submit the choices of their food at the time of submitting their application forms.

Mess Timings

Food will be served at the following timings:

Breakfast	7:30 am to 9:00 am
Lunch	12:00 noon to 2:00 pm
Snacks	4:30 pm to 5:30 pm
Dinner	7:30 pm to 9:00 pm

Food Menu

Menu will be displayed on the notice board in all the Halls of Residence. Menu will be decided monthly by the Mess committee which would comprise of the Hall representatives and the Hall administrations.

Special catering need of the residents shall be taken into account during festivals and religious ceremonies.

Mess Rules

- Strict discipline should be maintained in the dining hall.
- Food will not be served in rooms and the inmates are not supposed to take food to their rooms. If an inmate is ill, the Hall warden shall make suitable arrangements.
- Snacks will be served at the respective Halls.
- The inmates should not enter the kitchen at any time.
- No food shall be served before or after the specified mess timings.

Guests and Other Information

Guest Accommodation

Subject to the availability of rooms in the Guest House if a parent needs accommodation for a short stay (one or two days only), he/she has to intimate the Hall administration in advance.

If allowed to avail the Guest House facility for stay, Rs. 400 per person shall be charged per day. Day-scholars and other relatives of the students are not permitted to stay in the Halls of Residence as guests.

As only limited rooms are available, rooms will be allotted on first come first serve basis.

The Halls of Residence rules and regulations will equally apply to guests also.

Any damages caused to the PDMU property by guests shall be recovered from the concerned individuals.

Important Information

These revised rules and regulation supersedes all previous regulations. In case of any dispute the decisions of the Halls of Residence Administration will be final and it reserves the right to modify the rules and regulations as deemed fit.

Summer Breaks

All residents have to vacate the Halls during the summer vacation every year. In addition, the inmates may also be asked to vacate their room and deposit their luggage in the cloak rooms during summer/winter vacations for maintenance or any other requirement. In case a student is advised by the university to stay in the Halls of Residence during vacation due to academic reasons he/she may be allowed to stay as decided by the Hall administration. The allotment of the same room for the next year is not assured.

Student Representatives

There will be two Student Representatives on recommendation of Hall Warden and Chief Warden for each Hall of residence mutually nominated by the residents of the respective Hall to represent students' problems. The Hall representatives will represent student problems regarding maintenance, mess and other facilities and work to safeguard the Universities interests. Any untoward incident at the Halls of Residence or any non-compliance of rules should be reported by the student representative to the Administration immediately.

Getting around and transport

Before you arrive you may want to think about how you'll get around once you're here.

As a PDM student, you'll enjoy all the benefits of being within 25 kms. distance of Delhi, restaurants, parks and cinemas. With a great network of bus, train, metro and taxi services nearby, the vast majority of students find they have no need for a car. The convenient, fastest and cheapest way to reach from Bahadurgarh to New Delhi is to take metro from Bahadurgarh to New Delhi.

Bus: There are frequent bus services from Bahadurgarh to Delhi, Gurgaon, Rohtak and Sonapat. Students can buy a bus travelcard from Bahadurgarh bus stand.

Metro: Citypark metro station is the nearest metro station, with a proximity of 2.5 kms. It connects Bahadurgarh to Delhi in minimum travel time. It is convenient, fastest and cheapest way to reach Delhi.

Rail: This place has an efficient rail connectivity to the various major railway stations. Students can also apply for an yearly train pass to travel at convenient cost.

PDMU Shuttle Bus Service:

Air conditioned PDM Buses are available for students and parents at the Bahadurgarh Metro Station to pick and drop them. Same service is also provided to the students for visiting the city.

Taxi: Students can avail car facilities from Bahadurgarh bus stand. It is an easy and comfortable way to travel from Bahadurgarh to nearby places.
